Values-based leadership is a must in modern organizations characterized by transparency and easy availability of information. As Steve Jobs suggested, "The only thing that works is management by values. Find people who are competent and really bright, but more importantly, people who care exactly about the same things you care about."

In this engaging and interactive session, discover the practical applications of values based leadership. You will:

- Identify and explore the values that inform your leadership.
- Learn how to motivate and engage others through values conversations.
- Explore the role that values play in building a positive and productive organizational culture.
